HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 5.

New York News.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—A Tribune's New York special says the supply of water in the Croton reservoirs is steadily decreasing. The quantity daily delivered from the aqueduct is less than the amount consumed, with no indications of rain.

Fear of water scarcity has increased at Philadelphia. The Schuylkill is lower than at any time during the drouth, with about three feet of water in the Fairmount reservoir.

Parties arrived here to-day from San Francisco en route to Savannah, having made contracts for a thousand Chinese laborers to be delivered in three months.

Several Labor Associations have organized to purchase coal at the mines for their own use to ship direct to this city.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Five hundred and four deaths occurred in this city last week.

The plate printer's strike is ending. The National Bank Note Company has agreed to give the advance on the work. The new currency will be resumed on Tuesday.

Four leading hotels at Long Branch close tomorrow on account of cool weather.

A number of arrests were made yesterday of proprietors of beer breweries and saloons in Westchester county, for violation of the revenue laws relating to stamping beer kegs and barrels. Huffie, one of the arrested proprietors, has two very large breweries at Morrisiana. These arrests have occasioned considerable excitement.

The Chinese Mission.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The Times' Washington special says Boutwell, Fish and Hoar strongly oppose the appointment of George Wilkes as Minister to China.

New Postage Stamps.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—In consequence of the general dissatisfaction with the new postage stamps, orders have been given to prepare designs for new issues. The old designs are to be destroyed.

British Provinces.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Sept. 5.—At a levee of the Governor-General of New Brunswick yesterday, Sir John Young made a speech and said as the opposition to a union of the Provinces with Canada is dying, he looked for a speedy reconstruction of all parties and pointed to the advantages to be gained by a union with England and Scotland. The advantages conferred by the German Zolverien indicated the results that would follow the Confederation.

HALIFAX, Sept. 5.—Admiral Mundy sailed for England yesterday, in the British man-of-war Revenge. A farewell address, signed by a large number of citizens of Halifax was presented to the Admiral in the dock yard previous to his sailing.

Rear Admiral Menguel of the French man of-war Semiramis sailed this afternoon.

The steamer Hornet for Queenstown, which arrived from Philadelphia for coal, was, on complaint of the Spanish consul, examined on Thursday. Nothing was found on board to give sufficient cause for her detention. Upon the affidavit of a deserted sailor that the Hornet had arms on board, she was hauled into Queens wharf and compelled to undergo a second examination which is now progressing. As yet nothing has been found to warrant her detention. The Spanish consul has given bonds in $30,000 for her detention. The Captain of the steamer has presented a protest.

Condition of Senator Fessenden.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 5.—Senator Fessenden passed the night comfortably and has improved a little to day. Hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

The National Capital Convention.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 5.—Gov. Clayton of Arkansas, has signified his intention to appoint a delegation to represent Arkansas in the National Capital Convention.

Commercial Convention at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 5.—Active preparations are in progress for the Commercial Convention to be held here on the 12th of October. Gov. Stephenson has accepted to deliver the address.

New England Fair.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 5.—The New England Fair opens on this day. Entries are very large, and it will probably be the most successful ever held here.

Fire at Goldsboro, N. C.

GOLDSBORO, Sept. 5.—A terrible conflagration occurred here last night. The Wayne House, Masonic Hall, a lumber yard and ten warehouses were destroyed. Loss, $125,000. The offices of the Messenger and Post (newspapers) were destroyed, but they will both resume publication soon.

Condition of Secretary Rawlins.

SARATOGA, Sept. 5.—The President left for Washington in the evening train. He was to have gone to Utica to-morrow to visit Roscoe Conkling, but the character of dispatches received to-day from Washington in relation to the condition of Secretary Rawlins induced him to write Senator Conkling, saying: "It is with extreme regret that the continued dangerous illness of Secretary Rawlins, whose relations with me have been so intimate from the breaking out of the rebellion to the present day compels me to postpone the contemplated pleasure of a visit to your city to-morrow. I know that you, my friends, will appreciate the motive which calls me from a pleasure trip to the bedside of a comrade who has rendered such signal service to his country, and whose death will cast a gloom over the nation. The more recent despatches scarcely leave hopes that I may see him alive."

West Indies.

ST. THOMAS VIA HAVANA, Sept. 5.—The American war steamer Kansas, from Rio Janeiro Aug. 29th, will sail for New York on the 2d of September.

A shock of earthquake was felt here on the 29th ult.

The Governor of St. Thomas gave a ball in honor of the marriage of the Prince of Denmark. The representatives of the foreign governments were present.

The steamer Telegrafo remains at Toretella.

HAYTI, Aug. 27, VIA HAVANA, Sept. 5.—The rebel steamers Florida and Columbia have bombarded Govanes. The British gunboat Britomarte carried to Port au Prince 400 women from the town of Govanes. President Salnave has raised seige of Aux Cayes and sailed with the steamers Galena and Salnave for Port au Prince. His steamers became disabled and he is unable to operate against the town. Salnave is now waiting the arrival of an iron-clad from the United States. One dollar in gold is valued at a thousand dollars in paper money.

Foreign Dispatches.

ST. DOMINGO, Sept. 24.—Ex-President Cabrial continues the siege of Azera. President Baez has inspected the garrison of Azera and returned. The whole country remains unsettled.

CARRACAS, Sept. 23.—Don Guzman Blanco, formerly Minister to President Falcon, gave a ball lately to the foreign Ministers, while the festivities were in progress, a mob attacked the hall, crying "Death to Blanco!" Their intended victim made good his escape to the American Consulate and fled thence to Carracas. The crowd believed he sympathized with Gen. Pulgas, now in the rebellion of Maracaibo. President Monagas is at Porto Cabello organizing an army for the attack on Maracaibo. Villagos is acting as head Executive during his absence.

The elections are progressing quietly, and will, undoubtedly, result favorably to Monagas

Advices from Puerto Principe state that the insurgents attacked the Spanish forces three times at San Crapo, but finally retired with a loss of ten men.

Porto Rico advices say the sugar crops have been finished. The health of the Island is good.

"I believe that mine will be the fate of Abel," said a devoted wife to her husband, one day.

"How so?" replied the husband.

"Because Abel was killed by a club, and your club will kill me if you continue to go to it every night."

Upon the shutter of a little shop in Philadelphia is a placard reading thus: "Gootweel and figetyers fur sail." The premises has just been vacated by a German cordwainer, who desires to dispose of his "good will and fixtures."

The Oregon Squibobs' Farewell to his Indians and their Annual "Greenbax."

The following is a synopsis of late Agent Barnhart's "Farewell Address" to the Indians of Umatilla Reservation, with whom he had lived as Agent for the past eight years. The scene is said by eye witnesses to have been affecting beyond description. The young, the old, the lame, the halt, the blind, all, all came to perform a painful duty—to bid their old Agent, friend and companion a sad farewell:

MY DEAR FRIENDS. The time has at last come when we must part. The dark hour is upon us. The calamity may be no longer averted. Your grief and despair are alike as unavailing as my own anguish and regret. * * * "The Rubicon is passed!" "The Gordion knot has been cut!" "The Band has ceased playing." In short—"My Goose is Boyled.†" * * * *

For eight years we have lived happily and peacefully together. The flower of my manhood has passed away in your service. When I came among you first my brow was unwrinkled and my hair was as the raven's wing. Now I am in the sere and yellow leaf—my step is infirm, and my head is white—yet I trust that my memory will ever remain green with pleasant recollections of my sojourn with you. When we review the past, eight years seems a short time; yet in that period what changes we have witnessed immediately around us! Many, very many of our dear old friends—wise councilors in your tribe—have passed away to a better world. Another generation is springing up about you to reap the benefits of that new and higher civilization which the Great Father has promised, and which has been so assiduously planted and cultivated by me.

As I said, we have lived happily together, and, doubtless, would continue to so live for many years to come, were it not ordered otherwise by the Great Father at Washington. Figuratively speaking, you are his children; and were I a cousin, in a literal sense, or even more remotely connected by the ties of consanguinity, I would most probably be permitted to remain with you as you desire. But unfortunately I am not related to the President, and that, of course, lets me out.

One of the theories of our sovereign Republican form of Government is that when any of its citizens become competent by zeal and experience to assist in its administration in a manner to reflect credit on the nation, they should at once be displaced, however exalted or subordinate the position they may have occupied; that others, totally unqualified for the required duties, may have the opportunity to acquire that knowledge of public affairs deemed so essential and necessary for a self-governed people to possess. The practical application of this theory is one of the beauties of our sovereignty, and is in perfect accord with the genius of our free institutions.

Political economists and other Utopians have sometimes objected to this principle in our government as being fundamentally wrong, and invariably resulting in great injury to the body politic. But then those visionary people are seldom or never candidates for Congress, but when by any chance they are, defeat is always inevitable, and they are offered up as a sacrifice on the altar of their country, a lasting, and a terrible example to others.

This is as it should be. It is a great measure explains to foreign nations and our numerous Indian tribes, why we are such a great, natured, prosperous, united, happy people. * * * * My friends, your status in the scale of civilization to-day will compare favorably with the average Missourian, or the native of the mountainous region of North Carolina. You have steadily progressed in the science of agriculture until now we see cultivated by you, with all the care and skill of the thrifty husbandman, thousands of acres of land which a few short years ago were as wild and untamed as your fathers. Your herds of horses and cattle have multiplied until you can count them on every hill by thousands. Through my private generosity you have become possessed of all kinds of domestic animals—including pigs, hogs, ducks, geese, chickens, etc., etc. To behold your vegetable gardens causes one to feel justly proud, and overwhelms your white neighbors with jealousy and envy. Your race-horses are the fleetest in this region. Your men are the bravest, your women the purest. Before I came here an abortive attempt had been made to build a saw-mill and a flouring mill on this reserve for your benefit. When I inspected this work what did I behold? I saw a dam by the mill site, but, as you are aware, I did not see any mill by a damned sight! Your mills have been erected by me, and they are as good as any in the country. You have been kept comparatively free from the contaminating influences of Western frontier civilization, and the howling wilderness of your youth has been subdued, and made to bloom and blossom as the sunflower, so far as the alkaline nature of the soil would permit. So far as the application may be made to you the solution of the problem of the "Indian question" is settled. * * * * * * You are now fitted to become citizens of this glorious Republic, and I trust the day is not far distant when you will be entrusted with the right of freemen. I allude to the franchise!

"The ballot, which, like snow-flakes falling on the sod, Executes the freeman's will, as lightning does the will of God."

At which time if you still entertain your present sentiments of gratitude toward your early benefactor, he will perhaps return among you and ——— Run for Congress!

Thus in the future it may be in your power to repay, in a slight degree, one who has devoted the best years of his life in earnest, fruitful, endeavors to ameliorate your early condition of barbarism.

Although my official relation with you must now cease, perhaps never to be renewed, I am not going far away. I am too poor, even if I had the inclination.

I shall be your neighbor, your philosopher, your friend, and my ear shall ever be open to listen to the recital of your complaints, your troubles, and perhaps your wrongs. I may be without the power to do more for you than to vouchsafe my advice, consolation and sympathy, of which I ever hope to have sufficient for the demands of all.

After we have been for months threatened with Spiritualists, and Quakers, and small pox, a commonise has evidently been effected, and a soldier of the army is ordered to be stationed here to perform the functions of agent. That he will be able to acquit himself creditably of the important trust committed to his hands, much, very much depends upon your willing co-operation and complete acquiesence in the new state of affairs to be inaugurated here

With this military chieftain, who will shortly assume the charge of your temporal welfare, I have no personal acquaintance. His fame as a warrior is only known to me in a general sort of a way, by the success of our arms in the recent struggle for the life of a nation. I allude to the "late unpleasantness" among the whites on the other side of the mountains, scenes which I used so often vividly to describe to you, and which you have seen depicted in Frank Leslie's Pictorial. You will have ample time and opportunity to cultivate his acquaintance, and as you listen to the story of the dangers he has passed, you will, doubtless, become greatly attached to him.

We all entertain unbounded admiration for human valor and martial prowess, when those qualities are not directed against us personally, and the approach of the conquering hero with the olive branch instead of the sword, should bring the assurance that you will not be harmed or imposed upon if you continue to practice those virtues implanted by my constant precept and example for so many years.

* * * * * * *

From a civilian point of view, I am the last of the Indian Agents, a class of "Good Samaritans" who have been more maligned and traduced by the common herd than any other benefactors of the human race in any age of the world. Generally, I believe, we have maintained a sublime imperturability. We have been invulnerable to the false accusations and maledictions of an envious, ignorant rabble, and have brought consolation to our wounded feelings ever in the serene consciousness that "Virtue is its own reward."

My friends, our attachment and affection is mutual and is not a thing of yesterday. It has grown with our years and been cemented by our constant, peaceful association, and we have the sweet reflection that the whole power of the Government, although it may remorselessly sever our official relations, cannot estrange our mutual love and esteem.

My friends, the time, perchance, will come when you may be hunted like the coyote and the grizzly bear from your pleasant fields and fruitful gardens. I do not economise the fact when I tell you that only perfect obedience and submission to the laws made for your supposed benefit will avert that dreadful catastrophy. The Government will not, cannot be so cruel as to drive you from your homes, and the graves of your sires, if you continue your peaceful avocations and obey the authority of those placed over you. Obey the commands of your new Agent in all things, and he will soon learn to love and respect you, but if you become troublesome and rebellious, your sojourn upon this fair domain will be brief, and, in short, you will go out like a candle!

And now, my friends, I must go, we must part. I cannot bring myself to say that saddest of all sad words—my emotions—choke my utterance—these children crying—your tearful eyes—resting upon me—this poor old man—"Camas Billy"—weeping on—my shoulder—unmans me—I—I—cannot—can—not—say—the—word—my friends—"Othello's occupation's gone!"—FAREWELL!

OREGON.

The Albany Register has closed its first volume.

Wheat receipts at Albany last week were 19,589 bushels.

The "burned district" in Corvallis is nearly rebuilt again. Dwelling houses are scarce in Corvallis. The Gazette thinks some one would do well to build a number of houses there for rent.

The Albany Register says: Four of our citizens, who had been out about the Soda Springs on a hunt, returned the first of the week, bringing with them thirty-three deer. They were gone five days.

A Eugene paper says: We learn from parties in from the country that the recent heavy rains have destroyed a large amount of grain in this country, and quite a large amount of wheat is standing in the fields.

From the Corvallis Gazette: Some time since an enterprising citizen of this county wooed and won a dusky maid of the tribe of Benjamin (Simpson) and was duly married to the same according to law. The "gay deceiver" has lately deserted his better and browner half and fled the State. He has property in this county, and the lady has brought suit for a divorce, etc. A man should not desert his colors.

The State Journal says that on the night of the 26th ult., six miles south of Oakland, one Zimico Smith, at the hour of midnight, entered the residence of George Evans, and wickedly and rudely assaulted Mrs. Evans, by threats and force to satisfy his hellish lust—he knowing that the husband was many miles from home. Smith was arrested on the morning of the 27th. The testimony was positive on the part of Mrs. Evans, and fully confirmed by voluntary admission on the part of the prisoner. He was bound over for trial.

The Unionist of Sunday says: We can positively give a programme of Mr. Seward's movements while in the State, as follows: He will attend church this morning with Governor Woods; at 3 o'clock Mr. S. and party will start for Albany. On Monday he will come down on the west side of the river to ex-Senator Nesmith's farm and visit him, who was in town at the time of his arrival and spent several hours in his society. From there he will return to Salem on Monday evening and remain here over Tu

Love Lyric.

When eyes are lustrous,
And locks are clust'rous
And teeth are pearly, and cheeks are pink,
O, the limitless lot
Of ecstatical rot
A fellow gets writing, you'd scarcely think!

When lips are smiling,
And locks beguiling,
When croquet's in season, and moonlight walks,
May the critics pardon—
Nor Heaven be hard on—
The terrible nonsense a fellow talks!

How the Yankees Die Out.

A favorite theory—on which a thousand changes have been rung by certain of our Irish cotemporaries—with those who did not like the Puritan, has been that the Yankees are not procreative, and but for the influx of foreigners would have died out long since. The readers of the Boston Pilot, New York Gabliet, etc., have been edified a thousand times by the assurances that but for the Irish and Germans there would not be a remnant of the Yankees (whatever the word means) left.

There never was a more baseless thory spun out of the brains of the wildest Utopian than this in regard to the New England people.

Let the reasoner of the Pilot type take New England just as it stands, and he could make out a plausible case. He might be able to prove that the foreign births in Boston exceed those of the natives. So, also, may the foreign population exceed the Yankees in Boston. The case stated thus, and we have even seen our cotemporaries go further; is somewhat in favor of the dying-out theory.

Those who desire to count the Yankees must not take New England alone. That is but the foundation of the race.

Go where you will, you will find Yankees. They are as universal as the Irish. Chicago is more of a Yankee city than Boston. Go into the wholesale houses on Water street in Chicago, or in its Chamber of Commerce, if you want to find Yankees. Go to San Francisco, to New Orleans, to St. Louis, to any part of creation where there is a railroad to be built, a ship to be sailed, an elevator to be erected, and you will find the universal Yankee. Nine-tenths of the business of America is of Yankee "origin." Your Atlantic cables and Pacific railroads have been all spun out of his inventive and executive brain. And yet your dull-blooded journalist, who talks progress and innovation, can prove in a paragraph that there are no Yankees. We do not mean to assert that the Yankee is anxious to develop his muscle in driving railroad spikes. He develops the brain, and consequently is master of all the mere muscular giants in the market. The Yankee does not groove muscular labor, and will strip off and pitch in if necessary. But this education, while teaching him to respect labor, teaches him now to escape from the sewers and rise to the higher grounds of usefulness. Talk as we may, the great object of life is to escape from drudgery into the higher paths of commerce, science, and so forth. The man who is content to dig through life will never rise above the earth-worm.

Thus, the Yankee starts out determined to go at the first job that comes along, "go through it," and march on and up. He begins at the bottom and winds up as Director. This is the true education. Man should never be set to "stationary occupations." He should be always rising in life. Thus, when the Yankees cut their eye teeth—which they do at an early age—they bid good morning to the old folks and start for Chicago, San Francisco or Japan. Anywhere out of New England. Every Yankee carries a schoolhouse, a railroad, a [illegible] shop and a telegraph with him. He distributes these also villages and towns, as he "skedaddles" along. Others may carry the bricks and mortar, but he sets these others to work. Others may dig the mountains and lay the rails; he surveys and superintends. He is the [illegible]; others the efforts. If you [illegible] ations look about you and see who "earns his living by the sweat of his fellow man's brow" but the Yankee.

Dying out! Why, the Yankee can never die out. These are noble gray heads in New England village pews in the villages of Ireland—and less broken hearts. We are convinced that New England has done her duty in the matter of piling up the census. Barring the Irish, who are a species of Yankees, differing only in their ideas of going through the world, the Irish being content to go on foot while the Yankee sweeps by in palace cars, and a few other minor differences—the Yankee pauper being up the largest families of any people that we have seen.

They are the pepper and salt of creation; and though we may be smashed sometimes by their singularities, we admire them for it. They are true to liberty, as their fathers before them were, and all they need is a little more, very little, of our devil-may-care Irish blood to make them giants among men. This, we believe, they will receive in due time, and we hope in return to receive a great deal of cool, grim, tireless, continuous spirit of go-aheaditiveness.—Irish Republic, New York.

THE DAVENPORTS OUTDONE—THE MARVELS OF CHEMICAL EXPANSION AND CONTRACTION.—The Davenports, says the New York Sun of Aug. 17th, are eclipsed by two young men who have been introduced by the spirits. Harry Bastian of Brooklin aged 20 years, and DeWitt C. Hough of Hardford, Conn., aged 17. Mr. Hough's family recently moved to this city, and took up temporary residence with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Taylor of 238 West Thirty-first street, where a private seance was had last evening. Besides the well-known rope tricks of the Davenport spirits, and bell-ringing and guitar playing, there were other manifestations last night which had never been given in public. The public will have an opportunity to-night, however, to witness the more and more wonderful exploits. For instance, there lay on the table four solid iron rings 1-4 of an inch thick, and in diameter respectively 2 1-2, 5, 5 3-8 and 6 3-4 inches. The young men were as thoroughly tied as a committee of gentlemen could tie them, hand and feet, and the light having been extinguished the three larger rings were passed over the tied wrists and arms, one after another, and pushed up over the elbows. The smaller ring which could not possibly pass over the hand of the young man, was in one minute, by a process not well understood, placed upon his wrist. His hand measured 3-4 inches across. The young man's wrists were again tied with cotton cloth, which was also sewed to his shirt sleeves in such a manner as to make a loop over each wrist, besides the loop that united both hands. The small ring was again passed over the left hand wrist without interfering with the sewing or tying. One of two things was absolutely required to accomplish this feat—either the expansion of the solid ring an inch and a half, or the elongation or reduction in size by some process of the medium's hand. The latter could hardly have been done, and the spirits informed the Sun's reporter that the feat was done by a chemical expansion and contraction."

When Thad. Stevens was a young lawyer, he once had a case before a bad-tempered judge of an obscure Pennsylvania Court. Under what he considered a very erroneous ruling, it was decided against him; whereupon he threw down his books and picked up his hat in a high state of indignation, and was about to leave the court-room, scattering imprecations all around him. The Judge straightened to his full height, assumed the air of offended majesty, and asked Thad. if he meant to "express his contempt for this Court." Thad. turned to him very deferentially, made a respectful bow, and replied, in feigned amazement, "Express my contempt for this Court! No, Sir! I am trying to conceal it, your Honor," adding, as he turned to leave, "but I find it hard—d hard to do it."

The Columbus Democracy are having "hard lines" just now. The County Treasurer, who is on the Democratic ticket for re-election, has been found a defaulter for $15,000; the Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, who is a Columbus man, is reported in a condition not at all reassuring to the Democracy, who are invited to send funds to the Committee; and now, the cannon that woke the Democratic echoes, and that was presented to the Democratic Central Committee by Democratic contributors, has been levied on by a Democrat to satisfy a private debt of the Democratic Chairman.

THE EQUALIZER!

Treating Disease by Vacuum!

DR. H. A. BODMAN

HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat successfully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Diseases. He does not believe in the system of educating cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitant Diseases, Impotency and all kinds of weaknesses of the Generative Organs. Spermatorrhœa confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.

He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone, and health, and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.

OF

WEST OF THE CASCADES.

OLYMPIA, W T, May 24, 1869.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY solicit subscriptions to enable them to publish a MAP OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY West of the Cascades, compiled from the United States Surveys and the best and latest authorities. The scale is four miles to an inch, making the map sixty seven by fifty one inches. In addition to the topography of the country, the map shows the extent of the surveys, the Indian and Government Reserves, the Prairie lands, the soundings of the principal harbors, and many other particulars not given in previous maps. THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS TEN DOLLARS; RETAIL PRICE, TWELVE DOLLARS. The map will be furnished, colored, mounted and complete, by August. It was forwarded in March to the establishment of Colton & Co., New York, for publication

Subscriptions may be forwarded to Joseph Cushman, Receiver Land Office, Olympia; W. C Painter, Walla Walla, A. G Cook, Vancouver; S J. McCormick, Portland, who will receipt.

We call attention to the following endorsements

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T, March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir; Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr Chas A White is a practical surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

ARRIVAL OF VICE PRESIDENT COLFAX.—By the steamer Moses Taylor, which arrived at half past four yesterday afternoon, Vice President Colfax and wife, ex Governor Wm. Brose and daughter, Samuel Bowles (of the Spring field Republican,) and wife, Miss M. Wade and Mrs. L. G ...— constituting the "Colfax Party" of 1869, arrived at this city. The distinguished visitors were waited upon at the steamer by Messrs. Corbett, Williams, Dandy, Grose and McCraken, Reception Committee, and several of our prominent citizens and taken away in private carriages to the residences of the latter. There was no public demonstration, though it was the general expectation that one would be tendered. At present Mr ... wife and Miss Wade (sister to Mrs. Colfax,) are the guests of Senator Corbett. Mr. Bowles and wife are guests of Judge Dandy, and Governor Grose is, we believe, the guest of W. S. Ladd.

Last evening, the Vice President was serenaded at the ... Hotel, by the Infantry band from Ft. Van... At eight o'clock the band leading the Washington Guard and the Emmett Guard, of this city, and a vast concourse of people marched to the front of the Hotel and gave a few stirring airs by the band, Mr. Colfax was called for. He was introduced by Senator Williams who made, in doing so, some happy allusions to the former visit of our distinguished guests; the progress since then made by our people, the Pacific Coast and the nation; the interest to which we have attained, as evidenced by the ... visits this year received from distinguished men of the Vice President, members of Congress, distinguished ... and others who will go back to their public duties with a higher appreciation of our present and prospective development, and a more thorough understanding of the means by which ours and the general ... may be advanced. He was happy to introduce Mr. Colfax as one of the most active and firm friends of ... region.

Mr. Colfax came forward and was greeted with enthusiastic ... He alluded gracefully to his former visit ... by the people of Oregon, four years ... of the changes which had since taken place, ... the Pacific coast, and on the plains which he and his ... then traveled by stages, traveling laboriously ... and which they now crossed in so many days ... mode of travel; said he had come out here this ... not only to gratify the pleasure he felt in meeting ... and warm-hearted people of the coast, ... his pledges of four years ago, and to learn ... by the capabilities of the country and the ... of the people in the way of legislation; confidence of the people of Oregon upon the means by which ... have been brought into more neighborly contact with ... States of the nation; paid a handsome compliment to our representatives in Congress and said that ... the latter they had given our State, and the ... the public men who are this season coming out ... we should hereafter find it an easier task to obtain full and equal representation with other States, of ... and fair claims for National aid. As in 1865 he ... to discover the capabilities of the Pacific coast, he was now astonished to witness the strides ... made to ... that development which should yet ... the most ... chapter in the history of the civilized. He spoke at ... length of the general ... and its future destiny, saying that history ... no parallel, either in the capabilities of country ... the moral and intellectual growth of the people. ... the past had furnished no peer of ... nation, so our future will be beyond compare. ... any example given of national growth, prosperity and moral and physical power. He closed with ... for the advancement of the interests of the people of Oregon. Upon retiring he received hearty and long applause. The speech, though a ... was one well calculated to strengthen the admiration in which our people have held, for many years, the distinguished speaker.

... SCHEME.—A Mr. Peterson and associates, ... of Denmark, have taken the preliminary steps to ... a colony of their countrymen in Lane county. ... have filed applications for the purchase of school ... lying between the Willamet river and Long Tom. ... is going back to Denmark this fall, for the ... of bringing next year those of his countrymen ... may desire to join him.

... TO SEE HIM.—We are authorized to state that ... has placed his house at the disposal of ... Schuyler Colfax, wife and Miss Wade, during their ... in Portland. All friends, therefore, of Mr. Colfax, ... are particularly free to call and see ... at their convenience.

Monday, Sept. 6th.

In the matter of John Stephens—in bankruptcy—order for discharge granted and certificate issued.

In the matter of J. Levy—application for a final discharge J. W. Whalley having entered his appearance on behalf of one of the creditors, in opposition thereto, by consent, he had twenty days in which to file specifications of objection to discharge.

The Court adjourned until Monday, the 13th inst.

PORTLAND ACADEMY.—The fall term of this institution opened yesterday with a good attendance. A commercial department has been added; to be under the superintendance of Mr T. H. Crawford, who visited San Francisco last Spring to study the systems in use in the schools of that city. Mr Crawford is an eminently successful teacher, and we doubt not he will be able to inaugurate and conduct the new department to the entire satisfaction of all patrons.

ARRIVAL OF RAILROAD IRON.—It will be seen by the dispatches that the ship Norway arrived at San Francisco on the 5th instant, one hundred and fifty seven days from Cardiff. This is the ship on which the first cargo of iron for the East Side railroad was expected. We know nothing about how soon she may be looked for in the Columbia river, but we presume, within the month. She has over 1,000 tons of iron.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.—Proceedings of Monday, Sept 6th

Wm Watkins vs. M. Zeller; action to recover real property; demurrer to complaint withdrawn and defendant has till the first Monday in October next to file his answer. Hill for plaintiff, Wait for Defendant.

The Court adjourned till Tuesday, the 14th inst.

RECEPTION THIS EVENING.—There will be a public reception this evening at Philharmonic Hall, when Vice President Colfax and wife will be glad to meet all who may desire to call on them. No special invitations have been made by the Committee, but a general invitation is extended to the public. No doubt our people will improve this opportunity to spend an evening agreeably.

PURCHASING WHEAT.—By an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Messrs Corbett & Macleay propose to buy very largely of wheat, during the coming harvest year. They have made arrangements by which they will ship extensively direct to eastern and foreign markets. The farmers may bring on their grain, assured that this firm will be a constant buyer.

HIS HEAD IS LEVEL.—The Salem Farmer speaks of Mr. Bryon who came from California this season to start a dairy farm. He reasons that as Oregon buys and consumes Atlantic and California butter and cheese, it will be more profitable to establish a dairy here to supply a portion of the demand, and thus save the cost of transportation. He reasons well.

ERROR.—Our item of yesterday morning in relation to the Jewish Holy days contained an error in the first line. The Holy days began with last Sunday.

DAY OF OPENING.—The Beth Israel school will be reopened on the 8th inst, to-morrow, instead of on the 15th, as published one day last week.

THE LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY will meet in the basement of the Presbyterian Church at half past two o'clock this (Tuesday) afternoon.

Gov. Seward at Salem.

ED. OREGONIAN:

Oregon's great guest, Wm. H. Seward, arrived in this city at 6 o'clock last Saturday evening. He was received at the wharf by Mayor Scott, Gov. Woods and a committee appointed by the City Council. A large concourse of citizens assembled at the river, eager to see America's greatest statesman, and amid the roar of artillery and the inspiring strains of music from the Capital Brass Band, Mr. Seward was conveyed to a carriage and escorted to the Capital Hotel. In a short time a large crowd collected in front of the hotel, whereupon he appeared upon the balcony, and after being introduced by the Governor, proceeded briefly to thank the people for the cordial manner in which he had been received, and promised before taking his final departure, to speak more fully upon his impression of Oregon and the Pacific coast. At the close of Mr. Seward's remarks, he was enthusiastically cheered, during which he retired to his rooms.

Everybody seemed ready to do honor to our distinguished visitor except the superannuated misanthrope who presides over the columns of the Press. He alone opened his moloch jaws and dared to speak disrespectful of the world-renowned Premier, whose masterly diplomacy saved the country from the horrors of a foreign war during the fiercest struggle of the slaveholders' rebellion. It would seem that even a treason-steeped refugee like Beriah, might have possessed sufficient respect for the community, among whom he is permitted to eke out a precarious existence, to have observed a respectful silence during the time that our city is honored by the presence of the renowned throughout both hemispheres as the greatest statesman of the age. Beriah's few friends apologized for the malignant attack upon Mr. Seward, which appeared in the Press of Saturday, by attributing it to the fact that the "old man" has to work very hard while suffering with the ague. Indigestion may aggravate "the venom of his spleen," but he only taps in his own past history and exhibits anew the malignity for which he was driven ignominiously from a neighboring city, when he assails the veteran patriot who is now the guest of the people of Oregon. CIVIS.

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 7, 1869.

A Financial Writer in the Field.

In the leading article of its last issue the Oregon City Enterprise essays to enlighten the country on the subject of finance. It is cheering to observe that that paper can forget its enemy and rival, the Chinaman, long enough to enable it to furnish instruction for the million on this other interesting subject. The following is the result of its effort at financial writing:

From the report of the Secretary of the Treasury for the year 1866, we learn that the revenue of the United States collected that year from all sources, amounted to the round sum of $1,329,-686,378 34, or about one half as much as the national debt. Of this amount, $309,226,813 42 was derived from the internal revenue system, a system of taxation unknown in the United States prior to Republican rule. Prior to the new order of things, the Revenue of the United States was gathered from other sources than direct taxation, and the internal revenue system, and gathered in such a manner that it was not felt by the people. The same old channels of national revenue are now open and used by the party in power as much as they were before, and in combination with this new invention for collecting revenue.

All of which shows how easily a person may write on a great subject when he knows nothing about it. Turning to the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, we find the following detailed statement of the revenue receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866:

Receipts from Customs	$179,046,651 58
Receipts from Lands	665,031 03
Receipts from Direct Taxes	1,974,764 12
Receipts from Internal Revenue	309,226,813 42
Receipts from Miscellaneous Sources	67,119,369 91
Total Receipts, exclusive of loans	$558,032,629 06

Thus it appears that the revenue of the United States for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1866, was only about $800,000,000 less than stated by the financial writer at Oregon City. This, however, is about as accurate as the generality of financial statements made by Democratic writers. The receipts from loans during the same period were $712,851,-553 05; but there was expended for redemption of the public debt and interest on the same the sum of $753,389,467 30. The object of the Oregon City paper in making the statement just considered was to create the impression that during the year 1866 a sum almost half as large as the national debt was collected and squandered.

We should feel much obliged to this authority for the statement that "the internal revenue system is a system of taxation which was unknown in the United States prior to Republican rule," were there not some pretty well authenticated historical facts to the contrary. When it became necessary to raise money to meet expenses growing out of the last war with Great Britain a system of internal taxation was provided which was quite as sweeping as that now existing. The act of July 22, 1813, ordained "the assessment and collection of direct taxes and internal duties;" and a large number of supplementary acts was passed, by which taxes were laid on carriages, on spirituous liquors, on sugars refined in the United States, on auction sales, on retailers of spirits and on a vast number of other articles and occupations. An act was passed giving the duties of Commissioner of the Revenue, Collectors were commanded under the Sixth, and every description of writing had to be stamped. This system of taxation was continued for several years, or so long as the exigencies of the Government required it. If the financial writer at Oregon City will look this matter up he may get a hint that the present system of internal taxation is not so near a thing after all.

The revenue, according to this authority, was once raised in a manner that was not felt by the people. How? By a tariff, of course. Now the whole Democratic press is inveighing not against a tariff as the most odious species of taxation. These gentlemen are hard to please. If it be proposed to raise a revenue by direct taxation they complain about it; if it be proposed to raise it by indirect taxation they clamor for free trade. They are determined not to be satisfied with anything.

Our oracle proceeds further:

Since 1866 there have been three years of peace and prosperity, during which time the material wealth of the country has been very considerably developed and increased. And during these three years, this internal revenue system has been, and is yet, in full operation, and the income derived from it, must necessarily have increased with the increase of the wealth of the country.

The income derived from the internal revenue system has not increased since 1866, but, owing to the exemption of many articles and occupations from taxation since that time, it has greatly diminished. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1867, the receipts were but $266,027,537 43, against $309,226,813 26 for the preceding year. We have not the exact figures for the last fiscal year, but can state that they are much below those of 1867.

The vapor of a renegade is proverbial. The reader will easily detect in the extracts above given an undertone of accusation against the Republican party for having introduced a general system of taxation for supplying a revenue for the Government. Yet from the inception of this system until a year or two ago, the editor of the Oregon City paper was a steady supporter of the Republican party and an advocate of the measures he now condemns. His conduct is the old story of a renegade over again. In order to get a standing in the party to which he has betaken himself, he deems it necessary to misrepresent and denounce measures and doctrines which once had his approval and support. Republicans have found from numerous examples during the last few years that the zeal of deserters always outruns that of veterans in the ranks of the opposition.

The Chinese Treaty.

The communication from Senator Williams relative to the Chinese treaty, which we publish to-day, settles conclusively some points which have been mooted by the opposition press. He shows that the treaty when first presented to the Senate contained features which that body deemed objectionable, and that in these particular features important amendments were made. The article relating to the rights of Chinese in our educational institutions was recast throughout, and as it now stands it merely gives them the privilege of entering the schools controlled by the General Government, or in other words, the military school at West Point and the naval school at Annapolis. To the sixth article was appended a positive declaration that nothing in the treaty shall be held to confer citizenship on the Chinese in the United States. These statements are clear and conclusive, and furnish a complete answer to the principal objections raised by the Democratic press against the treaty. With this proof we are content to rest our case against those who have accused the OREGONIAN of misquoting the treaty for the purpose of deceiving the people of Oregon in regard to its provisions.

The rice harvest in Louisiana has commenced and the crop is estimated at 80,000 barrels.

The Vice President's Party

Accompanying the Vice-President are two gentlemen who visited Oregon with him four years ago, and who have done much to bring our State into favorable notice throughout the country. Mr. Bowles, of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, and Gov. Bross, of the Chicago Tribune, are among the best known of our journalists; and few men of any class or profession have so thorough and exact a knowledge of our whole country, acquired from travel and observation, as they possess. Mr. Bowles on this occasion is accompanied by his wife and Governor Bross by his daughter. Mrs. Calhoun, a correspondent of the New York Tribune, is also a member of the party. These, with the Vice-President and wife, and Miss Wade, sister to Mrs. Colfax, form the party who have traveled together from the East and are now visiting Oregon. The notable letters on the Pacific States and Territories, written by Mr. Bowles four years ago, are well remembered in our State, and we doubt not his ready pen will again find employment in narrating his new experiences and impressions here. Our visitors of the press are accustomed to talk to mighty audiences through the New York Tribune, the Springfield Republican and the Tribune of Chicago, and we are sure they will give a good report of Oregon!

In General.

Dispatches to-day indicate that Senator Fessenden may recover. It is difficult to imagine why the news gatherers should have telegraphed such unfavorable reports concerning his condition. We are glad to have reason to hope for his ultimate recovery; and if he lives to read the obituary notices which the press have given him he will be able perhaps to form some idea of what the world will think of him after he has actually passed away. Andrew had this opportunity once, but found that the opinions of his countrymen were not such as he could call flattering.

If any one doubts that Major Barnhart, late Indian agent at the Umatilla reservation, is a wag, we advise that unbelieving individual to read the Major's "farewell address," which we publish to-day, and at once become convinced to the contrary. This discourse is positively inimitable, and we hesitate to multiply words about it because we know there is no use trying to do it justice. Everybody in Oregon, we think, will read it. When we next hear from the Major we hope he will have ceased to explain that—

> All is but toys, renown and grace is dead;
> The wine of life is drawn and the mere lees
> Is left this vault to brag of.

A penitentiary is to be built at Boise City, which an Idaho paper says will be "the first public building erected in Idaho Territory. We would suggest that a public demonstration commemorate the event." It is quite in accordance with the fitness of things that the "first public building" in Idaho shall be one of this description. Judging from the conduct of the Legislature there on several occasions, the Territory needs a penitentiary far more than a capitol. Indeed Idaho would do well to follow the advice of the Ohio farmer, who on reading that the penitentiary of that State is now a paying institution, and that the late Democratic Legislature had run the State enormously in debt, remarked, "I think we had better turn our Legislatur into a penitentiary, by jingo!"

The Democratic mind should now be measurably at rest. The superiority of the Caucasian race is at last firmly established. Every white bosom will thrill with peculiar pleasure on reading in our recent dispatches that a colored base ball club, which had the temerity to challenge a club composed of members of our noble and unconquerable race, has not met with a crushing defeat. The Olympic club, to whose prowess we owe the pre-eminence of our race in the "national game," is the champion club of the country. It has beaten the renowned Mutuals of New York and other clubs, and now it has defeated an aggressive, formidable African club, which boldly challenged it to contest for the championship. We are satisfied now that the nation is safe—though undoubtedly it would be more reassuring to the Democratic mind if the renowned Olympic would continue its conquering until China, as well as Africa, were vanquished at base ball. Then there would be no more worlds to conquer.

Treaties with China.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I desire to correct a misapprehension which seems to have obtained with the Democratic press on this coast as to our treaty stipulations with China.

During the administration of Mr. Buchanan, and on the 18th of June, 1858, a "Treaty of Peace, Amity and Commerce" was concluded between the United States and China.

During the late administration of Andrew Johnson, "additional articles" to the treaty of 1858 were agreed upon between his Administration and the Plenipotentiaries of China.

When these "articles" were submitted to the Senate the eighth one read as follows:

Art. 8. The United States freely agree that Chinese subjects shall without hindrance on account of their nationality or religion, be admitted to all schools, colleges and other public educational institutions, without being subject to any religious or political test; and on the other hand His Majesty, the Emperor of China, agrees that citizens of the United States may freely establish and maintain schools in that empire at those places where foreigners are permitted by treaty to reside.

I objected to this article on the ground that it deprived States and local communities of the right to control their own schools, and upon my motion this article was amended so as to read as follows:

Citizens of the United States shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Government of China, and reciprocally Chinese subjects shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Government of the United States which are enjoyed in the respective countries by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nations. The citizens of the United States may freely establish and maintain schools within the empire of China, at those places where foreigners are by treaty permitted to reside, and, reciprocally, Chinese subjects may enjoy the same privileges and immunities in the United states.

Article 6th of the additional articles, when submitted to the Senate, read as follows:

Art. 6. Citizens of the United States visiting or residing in China shall enjoy the privileges, immunities or exemptions in respect to travel or residence as may there be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation, and reciprocally Chinese subjects residing in the United States shall enjoy the same privileges, immunities and exemptions in respect to travel or residence as may be enjoyed by the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation.

Objection was made to this Article because it might be misconstrued on the subject of naturalization, and to avoid any possible mistake of that kind, the following clause was added by the Senate:

But nothing herein contained shall be held to confer naturalization upon the citizens of the United States in China, or upon the subjects of China in the United States.

When I say that said "Articles" were amended as above indicated, I speak whereof I do know, for I suggested one amendment and advocated both, and took pains to see that they were duly inserted into the treaty before it left the Senate. I may add that the "Additional Articles" agreed to by President Johnson, as amended by the Senate, have not yet been ratified by the Chinese Government, and therefore have no force, and that the Judiciary Committee of the Senate at the last session of Congress, reported a bill excluding Chinese from naturalization. DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 6.

Secretary Rawlins' Condition

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—It was thought yesterday noon that Secretary Rawlins was convalescent, but at 4 o'clock he began to fail and afterwards rallied a little. About nine in the evening his pulse became very feeble and he layed without noticeable change till 8 in the morning, when he called for and ate breakfast, and afterwards directed a disposition of private business. During the P M various friends called, including Secretaries Cox, Fish, Hobbetson, Cresswell and Generals Sherman, Parker and Howard. Dr. Bliss, attendant physician, has been in constant consultation with Surgeon Gen. Barnes, Dr Morris and others of like prominence. Gen Dent, of the President's household, without intermission, has remained at his bedside and sent telegrams to President Grant respecting the condition of the Secretary. This P M, at his request, he was visited by a Methodist clergyman, by whom he was baptized and with whom he subsequently partook of the sacrament. He has, throughout his sickness, been conscious of his real condition, and has signed all the papers which may affect the future circumstances of his family. At 8 o'clock to night he was resting quietly. No aggravation of his symptoms at present are apparent, but there is no prospect of final recovery. His moral courage is such, however, that it may prolong his life a day. The President is expected to morrow. The condition of the Secretary casts a gloom over the entire city and is the theme of conversation in all circles. At half past 12 to night Secretary Rawlins appeared free from pain and was asleep. No perceptible change in his condition for the last three hours.

Escapes from Prison.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 6.—On Sunday morning three persons in the prison in this city broke out. Two negroes picked the locks of their cells and escaped to the interior. They bound the keeper securely, took the keys and opened the cell of a white man named Curtis, and all of them escaped.

Supposed Drowning.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A party of six young men, supposed to be merchant's clerks, started on a pleasure excursion in a yacht, yester yacht was subsequently found bottom The occupants are supposed to have drowned.

Heavy Robbery.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—A fire at midnight destroyed the distillery of Singer & Bookveldeck, on North Branch. It was probably an incendiary fire. Loss, $23,000.

Two gentlemen just arrived from Montana report that Wells, Fargo & Co.'s coach, which left Helena on the 29th of August, was robbed at Malad Summit, Utah, 60 miles north of Corinne, about midnight on the 31st ult. Eight men masked stopped the coach and assured the passengers that they should not be molested. They compelled the driver to deliver the treasure box in care of the express company, amounting to about $30,000 in gold. The robbers saluted the passengers courteously and rode off with the spoils. The passengers had an aggregate of about $40,000 on their persons. No attempt was made to take anything from them.

Cuban Recognition.

A Tribune's special says that Secretary Fish, though personally opposed to recognizing the belligerency of Cuba, believes that such an act will be taken by the Administration before Congress meets. The principal reasons which weighed against recognition were the complications which would arise in the Alabama claims and the terms of the treaty of 1795 with Spain. The members of Cabinet believe that recognition before the Cubans have organized a Government or possess a fort or ships, would seriously impair, if not altogether destroy our claims against England. Recognition would almost inevitably create a war with Spain.

It is understood that Secretary Boutwell intends to continue the present rate of purchases of bonds and the sale of gold during September and October.

Napoleon's Health.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Herald's London special of the 5th says private dispatches to-night from Paris, represent that the Emperor's illness has taken a somewhat alarming turn. He experienced another attack of the disease, which occasioned an unusual amount of extreme suffering. The paroxysm soon subsided, but to-day the Emperor feels much exhausted from the effects. No fatal result from the attack is anticipated, but the exciting symptoms are of a character decidedly calculated to cause uneasiness both in his family and the public mind.

Mexican News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Herald's Mexican special of the 29th says Jose Rivas Palacios was shot at the entrance of the National Theater by Lerre, son of the editor of the Mexican Monitour.

It is believed Seward has abandoned his proposed visit to Mexico.

Peculations in the Treasury Department to the amount of $65,000 have been discovered.

A treaty of amity and commerce with the German Confederacy, will be signed in the City of Mexico Aug. 29th.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Times has an editorial on Mrs. Stowe's Atlantic Monthly article relating to Lord and Lady Byron. The writer considers Mrs. Stowe's story a faithful report of Lady Byron's statement to her. The Times thinks Lady Byron was probably a victim of delusion. It cannot conjecture how she first came to entertain suspicions, but can easily understand how being entertained at first, they imposed on herself and then on Mrs. Stowe. It would only be what thousands of unhappy wives have done before, to have suspicions of exceptional enormity. The Pall Mall Gazette thinks Mrs. Stowe not a serious offender if grandchildren seriously thought of publishing Lady Byron's papers. The solicitors, in their letter recently published, make no charge of inaccuracy, but only of incompleteness. The inference is that Mrs. Stowe's is correct, but more remains to be told. The Morning Post says Lady Byron in her will committed her papers to Trustees and under certain conditions, and Mrs. Stowe is not her Trustee. Her story is entirely fictitious and she committed a breach of confidence, and an offense by her own showing that does not admit of extenuation. It does not signify whether Mrs. Stowe was ignorant of the terms of the will or not. It was a violation of confidence, an outrage on the dead and a disregard of the feelings of the living. She should know that the public conscience cannot be offended with impunity.

A correspondent in the Times says the calamity in the cotton trade is owing to the increase of the consuming power at a time when the raw material is decreasing. He argues that it would be folly for American planters to raise 500,000 bales at double the expense of the land labor when the same profit can be realized from half that amount.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Times says the indisposition of the French Emperor is again for the people, for if it has made them feel that nations must survive individuals, and that their destinies must not hang on one life. It will be the Emperor's fault if his indisposition be not again for himself and his dynasty. He must base the Empire on a policy unreasonably liberal.

The rowing match between Walter Brown of Portland, Maine, and Renforth, the present champion, for the championship of the Thames, is off. A match has been arranged between Brown and Sadlier, ex champion.

The yacht race between the Dauntless and the Cambria has been fixed for September 15th. It will not be sailed during the equinoctial gales.

A British company proposes to establish a regular line of steamers between Naples and New York.

In Prince Napoleon's speech he went too far. The general opinion is that the Prince displayed great ability and a liberal spirit.

The Evening Post to-day has an article on Canadian affairs. The writer says the consolidation and development of Canada are at hand. Immigration is encouraging the Government in its active relations with the United States is in a fair way of improving the people. Immigration and money are the great considerations. Let Canada show that these can safely and profitably be sent to her and the old country will be found supporting and invigorating to a better manner than in supplying her with inadequate garrisons.

The Marquis of Harlington attended the cutlers' banquet, at Sheffield, last night, and made a speech, said the task of the ensuing session of Parliament would be the settlement of the Irish land question, and he hoped the subject would be debated with as little political feeling as possible. It had never been the battle ground of party men statesmen of various opinions had shown an honest disposition to grapple with the difficulties surrounding the matter.

The Times comments as follows on Cardinal Cullen's last pastoral, and on the claims put forth by the Roman Catholic Bishops of Ireland: they demand our common education, exaltation of denominationalism. The language Archbishop Cullen must provoke resentment. The pretensions of the Catholic hierarchy toward the State are intolerable. There is not one of their resolutions on education which people will not impartially repudiate, and which brought before Parliament would not be repealed. The lesson of the last two years seems lost on the prelates. They have not understood how a proposition of great moderation and acknowledged wisdom proved abortive last session through the profound antipathy of Parliament to applying the public money to the Catholic Churches. The present proposals are about as hopeless as any that could be propounded. England and Scotland will not listen to them. Even in Ireland they will not command the assent of classes interested in higher education. In Parliament they would be mentioned only to be condemned.

William Howitt writes to the Daily News today on the Byron scandal. He says there is little doubt that the altered conduct of Lady Byron toward her husband, was the result of her father's representations, backed by some odious story. He traces the conduct of the wife in buying up her husband's memoirs and destroying them, thus destroying the evidence and depriving Byron of the opportunity of self-justification. They should deprive the wife of the right to advance fresh charges. The writer feels certain that this will be the ultimate verdict of the public.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Mr. Aytoun has written a note defending Lord Byron and discrediting the statements of Mrs. Stowe.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—The Emperor did not go to Chalons to day.

The Empress has arrived at St. Cloud. She has abandoned her eastern journey for the present.

Count Chesta has gone to Vichey, where, it is said he will challenge Gen. Prim.

Prince Gortschakoff is expected here soon.

The Presse says Dr. Nelaton, the Emperor's physician, contradicts the alarming reports constantly arising in regard to the health of the Emperor. Dr Nelaton declares his convalescence will be rapid if he takes the necessary rest. There were public reports that the Emperor was fast recovering, and that he remained yesterday evening conversing with the Empress until 11 o'clock.

The Journal Officiale reports that the Ministers held a meeting of the Council to-day, but makes no mention of the presence of the Emperor.

Prince Napoleon had an interview with the Emperor to day.

MADRID, Sept. 3.—The Imperial of this city says that the chances of the Duke of Genoa are best for the throne of Spain, and urges the Cortes to fix his majority at sixteen years.

The Journal of this city comments variously on Napoleon's refusal to see Gen. Prim.

The Heraldo says an interview with Napoleon has been sought, but that Gen. Prim's visit to Paris was solely on private business.

MADRID, Sept. 3.—Four thousand troops sail for Cuba on the 9th or 10th inst. 6,000 more will follow in a few days.

VIENNA, Sept. 3.—Beroe has received his Exequatur as American Consul. Americans here are much gratified that the United States was first to be recognized under the new law of admitting Consuls in other towns than capitals.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Wm. Harmon, Jas. McNasby, Thos. Duffy and R. Snowder were arrested yesterday in the act of robbing a saloon on Pacific street, near Montgomery. Chas. H. Kenyon was arrested at the Dick House last night for attempting to shoot a bell boy, John McNulty, and Mr. Lawler, head clerk. Kenyon was intoxicated at the time and fancied himself insulted. Defective percussion caps alone prevented serious results. Kenyon has long been a Government officer in Arizona.

Jas. Murphy, alias "The Dodger," was stabbed in the breast and dangerously wounded by J. Ryan yesterday morning in the New World saloon, corner of Front, and Vallejo streets. A drawing knife was the utensil used.

McCoppin on the Rampage.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors today a communication was presented from Mayor McCoppin demanding a recount of all the ballots cast at the election, so far as it relates to the office of Mayor. He alleges that the public and himself are dissatisfied with the manner in which the count was made; that the ballots were tampered with in some places, and that results were obtained contrary to the expressed wish of a majority of the electors of the city. He says: "In this connection I think it quite proper to remark to you, gentlemen, that it was with great surprise and not a little indignation I read that Mr. Selby, in reply to an address made to him by Messrs. Harding, Stratman, Barstow, Berry, Badlam, Bugney and Arnot, assumed the air of a great reformer; that he had been elected in opposition to a party banded together by corruptions and unprincipled speculators. By this it is most fair to suppose that Mr. Selby meant me and my friends. In reply I have no hesitation in charging that the corruptionists and corruption was on his side and not on mine. It is known and can be proved that large sums of money were raised for election purposes by his party and friends, and that the same funds were used in the most unblushing and unscrupulous manner for his election. Before Mr. Selby and his friends have cleared their skirts of other charges made on every street corner, and here are repeated, it is of questionable propriety for him to step forward as the champion of reform. The insinuations contained in Mr. Selby's remarks about corruptionists and municipal speculation I pronounce unqualifiedly false and mean, and I challenge him to give a single proof, with all my record open to him, of the charges he prefers. My supporters were honorable men, and the contest on my side was conducted in a fair and honorable way, which is more than can be said of my opponents. Unless Mr. Selby can prove and does prove the charges he has preferred on insinuation, he must take his seat, if on re-count he is elected, under the suspicion that he is ready to sacrifice private and public decency, and to stab in the back an honorable foe, one who has never either publicly or in private said aught against him."

After considerable debate, which was warm and exciting, the Board voted itself into a Committee of the Whole, and the ballots and returns were delivered to the Board by the County Clerk, and then a question arose on the appointment by the Chair of six clerks. After much wrangling and warm language, the Chair appointed Messrs. John A. Russell, C. C. Convis, P. T. Nongues, Geo. T. Knox, M. D. Boorack and M. Keney, clerks of the Board for the re-count. The Board then took a recess to prepare for the business of the recount.

The recount by the Board of Supervisors of ballots cast in the First Ward gives McCoppin a gain of eighteen votes. The Board have adjourned until morning. Much excitement has been created by Mayor McCoppin's animadversions upon Mr. Selby and by the result of the recount.

Iron for the Virginia and Truckee railroad has arrived at San Francisco.

Daymen, sentenced for life for killing Springer, is going to marry Grace Kennison forthwith. She was the cause of the conflict.

Dedman is sentenced to State prison for life.

CARSON, Sept. 6.—Between 8 and 9 o'clock Wednesday evening, Jas. Hinley, a fisherman, Jas. Cain, Isaac Stein, Chas. Anderson and Wm Riddle, started from Tahoe City for the Warm Springs on Lake Tahoe, distance about eleven miles—nothing has been heard of them since. The boat was found Saturday night about half way between the two places bottom up. No doubt the men were drowned. It was blowing a gale at the time they started. Riddle was lately married. Cain was an engineer. Everything is being done to recover the bodies.

An old man named Kennedy was struck yesterday in a melee by a club and had his shoulder dislocated.

A French wood chopper, west of the city, was seriously injured by a tree falling on him. Hopes are entertained of his recovery.

On Friday night the residence of John G. Fox was robbed of what could be picked up on the lower floor, and on Saturday that of S. H. Merlette, and last night that of S. C. Wright, across the street from Merlette's, were also entered. Nothing of value taken from Wright's, as near as can be ascertained, the family being away and the valuables having been put away in a safe.

CARLIN, Sept. 6.—Parties arrived here to night on their way to Mineral Hill. They go to put up a first class mill. A flourishing town has already sprung up there, and large numbers are wending their way to the promised land daily.

ELKO, Sept. 6.—A sale is about perfected by Mr Ballou for the quarter portion of his extension of the town of Elko to a San Francisco and and Chicago house, price not known. The lands are very valuable. A number of fine buildings for big houses are being erected and property has taken quite a rapid rise in the last two weeks. The mining excitement shows no abatement and the rush to the new El Dorado has already commenced. Mr. Paul Morley, of the Cosmopolitan, having sold out his interest in the hotel, left today for San Francisco.

A Chinaman who murdered one of his countrymen some time since, escaped from custody last night and has not yet been recaptured.
